For Immediate Release (8-24-09) – The Reno Sparks Chamber of Commerce, northern Nevada’s largest business group, will hold a Business Networking Breakfast on Sep. 11 featuring the new WCSD Superintendent, Dr. Heath Morrison.

The topic is WCSD: Alignment, Accountability, Accessibility and Achievement. Dr. Morrison will outline his vision and plans for area schools and student achievement. All of the School Trustees will also be on hand to answer audience questions.

The meeting takes place on Friday, Sep. 11 at the Atlantis Casino Resort Spa. Doors open at 7:00 a.m. for business professionals to network and the program begins at 7:30 a.m.

“The Chamber and the business community are tremendous advocates for education,” said Chamber CEO Doug Kurkul, “and we are eager for the community to hear about Dr. Morrison’s dynamic plans for our schools and student achievement.”

Businesses interested in sponsoring this program and providing brief welcoming remarks at the Breakfast should contact Nancy Pulliam immediately at 775-337-3030, ex. 3057.

Tickets are available at 775-337-3030 or at www.RenoSparksChamber.org/Events. Substantial discounts are available for Chamber members and advance purchases.

The Reno Sparks Chamber of Commerce is northern Nevada’s largest business organization, providing leadership, business advocacy, access to business and political leaders, and programs targeted to members’ business objectives and interests.
