For Immediate Release (9-8-09) – The Reno Sparks Chamber of Commerce, northern Nevada’s largest business organization, and the Washoe County School District will jointly announce a Youth Leadership Program Partnership on Friday, September 11.

The partnership builds upon the Chamber’s Leadership Reno Sparks “Youth Leadership Program.” The prestigious program is designed to enhance the leadership skills and community awareness of selected high school juniors. Through the partnership with WCSD, the program’s curriculum and administration are being further enhanced. WCSD will announce application procedures.

The partnership announcement will be made at the Chamber’s Business Networking Breakfast at the Atlantis Casino Resort Spa on September 11. The event begins with networking at 7:00 a.m. followed by program at 7:35 a.m.

The guest speaker for the breakfast is the new WCSD Superintendent, Dr. Heath Morrison. The topic is WCSD: Alignment, Accountability, Accessibility and Achievement. Dr. Morrison will be joined by all of the members of the WCSD Board of Trustees.

“We are excited to partner with the Washoe County School District on further enhancing this wonderful program.” said Ralph Hartmann, chair of the Reno Sparks Chamber.

Tickets for the breakfast are on sale now, $20 for Reno Sparks Chamber members; $30 for non members, prepaid and $40 after 2:00 p.m. on September 10. To purchase tickets, call 775-337-3030 or online at RenoSparksChamber.org/Events.

The Reno Sparks Chamber of Commerce is dedicated to the success of local businesses and the economic vitality and quality of life of our region.
