For Immediate Release – Reno, NV (4-15-2010) – The Reno Sparks Chamber of Commerce, northern Nevada’s largest business organization, will hold a Candidates Forum and Reception on May 4. The Chamber is bringing back the event by popular demand from its membership.

The May 4 forum and reception will run from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. at the Holiday Inn Reno-Sparks, at 55 East Nugget Avenue in Sparks.

Sponsored by Wells Fargo and AT&T, it will allow the public to interact with candidates informally. There will be no speeches, just conversation, handshakes, food and drinks.

“Interest in the mid-term elections is at peak levels this year,” said Chamber CEO Doug Kurkul about the Chamber’s decision to bring back this event in 2010. “The business community, and voters in general, are concerned about job creation and sustainable economic growth. They’re scrutinizing candidates’ platforms more carefully this year.”

“The Candidates Forum and Reception will provide an opportunity for the public to meet the candidates informally and discuss key issues,” Kurkul said.

The event is open to Reno Sparks Chamber members ($10) and the public ($25). The day-of-event price is $25. Tickets can be purchased at 775-337-3030, or at www.renosparkschamber.org.
