For Immediate Release – Reno, NV (5-27-10) – The Reno Sparks Chamber of Commerce, northern Nevada’s largest business organization, has awarded college scholarships to two area high school students.

The recipients are Yolanda Newsome, a senior at Sparks High School, and Donielle Stevens, a senior at Wooster High School. Both are graduates of the Youth Leadership Program administered jointly by the Reno Sparks Chamber of Commerce and the Washoe County School District. Each scholarship is in the amount of $500.

The scholarships were awarded on the basis of participation in the leadership program, an essay, grade point average, letters of recommendation, and extracurricular activities. The awards were presented at the graduation ceremony by Youth Leadership Program Chair Idora Silver (I. Silver Management); Reno Sparks Chamber Chair-Elect Bruce Gescheider (Moana Nursery); and Steve Mulvenon (Washoe County School District).

Students who will be high school juniors in 2010-11 who are interested in learning more about the application process for the Youth Leadership program should contact Marc De La Torre at the Reno Sparks Chamber at 775-337-3030, ext. 3057.

The Reno Sparks Chamber of Commerce is northern Nevada’s largest business group, providing pro-business advocacy, high-level networking, programs aimed at business success, and leadership development.
