For Immediate Release – Reno/Sparks, NV (6-14-10) – The Reno Sparks Chamber of Commerce’s next “Business Networking Breakfast” on June 30 will feature a question-and-answer session with County Commission Chair David Humke and County Manager Katy Simon.

“The ‘Salute to Washoe County’ program will recognize the County’s achievements, brief business and civic leaders on the County’s strategic plan, and provide an opportunity for questions and answers,” said Doug Kurkul, CEO of the Reno Sparks Chamber. The program is sponsored by NV Energy and Wells Fargo.

The Business Networking Breakfast is open to both members and non-members of the Reno Sparks Chamber. It will be held on Wednesday, June 30 at Harrah’s Reno. Networking and registration begin at 7:00 a.m. Attendees are encouraged to bring their business cards for networking.

The formal program begins at 7:35 a.m. County Commissioner (and former Chamber Chairman) John Breternitz will lead the audience in the Pledge of Allegiance. The Q&A session with Chairman Humke and County Manager Simon will be moderated by Chamber CEO Doug Kurkul and Washoe County Director of Community Relations Kathy Carter. The program will conclude by 9:00 a.m.

Early-Bird discount tickets are now available for $20 for Chamber members and $30 for non-members at 775-337-3030 or at www.renosparkschamber.org/events.htm
